

September 2002

AFRL awards more than $2 million to universities

by Fran Crumb, Information Directorate

ROME, N.Y. — The Air Force Research Laboratory's Information Directorate at Rome has recently awarded contracts and grants totaling more than $2 million to colleges and universities. Institutions receiving funds for research programs related to the directorate's information technology mission include:

— Carnegie Mellon University, $707,995, "Dynamic Scheduling for Integrated Flight Management."

— Carnegie Mellon University, $290,002, "Automated Diversity in Computer Systems."

— Carnegie Mellon University, $290,002, "Scalable Redundancy for Infrastructure Services."

— Columbia University, $615,194, "Secure Overlay Services."

— University of California at Los Angeles, $85,000, "Blend Beamforming for Collaborative Array Processing in Sensor Networks."

— Syracuse University, $70,440, "Covert Data Recognition and Recovery."

— University of Tulsa, $17,000, "Novel Technique Toward Forensic Database Analysis." @